

CODE OF ETHICS FOR PRIVATE SECURITY EMPLOYEES

In recognition of the significant contribution of private security to crime prevention and reduction, as a private security employee, I pledge:

- I. To accept the responsibilities and fulfill the obligations of my role: protecting life and property; preventing and reducing crimes against my employer's business, or other organizations and institutions to which I am assigned; upholding the law; and respecting the constitutional rights of all persons.
- II. To conduct myself with honesty and integrity and to adhere to the highest moral principles in the performance of my security duties.
- III. To be faithful, diligent, and dependable in discharging my duties, and to uphold at all times the laws, policies, and procedures that protect the rights of others.
- IV. To observe the precepts of truth, accuracy, and prudence without allowing personal feelings, prejudices, animosities or friendships to influence my judgments.
- V. To report to my superiors, without hesitation, any violation of the law or of my employer's, or client's, regulations.
- VI. To respect and protect the confidential and privileged information of my employer or client beyond the term of my employment, except where their interests are contrary to law or to this Code of Ethics.
- VII. To cooperate with all recognized and responsible law enforcement and government agencies in matters within their jurisdiction.
- VIII. To accept no compensation, commission, gratuity, or other advantage without the knowledge and consent of my employer.
- IX. To conduct myself professionally at all times, and to perform my duties in a manner that reflects credit upon myself, my employer, and private security.
- X. To strive continually to improve my performance by seeking training and educational opportunities that will better prepare me for my private security duties.
